Help Build The New Spirit!

You can always tell when something special is about to happen. There's a sense of anticipation, a buzz in the air. People are poised on the brink of a new experience. It's happening now at Newark Symphony Hall.

This is your chance to help us Build The New Spirit as we present the New Subscription Season at Symphony Hall featuring "The Best of American Dance at Symphony Hall" and "Newark's First American Theatre Festival".

"The Best of American Dance at Symphony Hall", a celebration of the universal appeal of American dance, presents Garth Fagan's Bucket Dance, Gallman's Newark Dance Theatre and Dayton Contemporary Dance Company, all nationally recognized American Dance Companies appearing on the great stage of the Main Hall.

"Newark's First American Theatre Festival" will showcase the diversity and power of American theatre with presentations from Crossroads Theatre Company, Negro Ensemble Company, Jomandi, and Ensemble Theatre Company in our intimate Off-Broadway theatre space.

This new subscription season will definitely be exciting, but seating will be limited to subscribers only. So to make sure you don't miss your chance to build the new spirit, subscribe today. Details inside!

The Best of American Dance at Symphony Hall

Garth Fagan Bucket Dance

Saturday, October 28th
8:30pm

"Quick, rubbery, muscular, meditative, fluent and sharp...the Bucket's dancers are exciting performers committed to energy in its purest state." — NEW YORK TIMES. Garth Fagan's Bucket Dance is making its Symphony Hall debut.

Gallman's Newark Dance Theatre

Saturday, December 2nd
8:30pm

"The classically trained dancers have staked out their territory as interpreters of the black American experience in a high energy, knock 'em dead, Alvin Ailey style that combines jazz, ballet and modern dance." — THE VILLAGE VOICE. A return engagement for this exciting company.

Dayton Contemporary Dance Company

Saturday, January 27th
8:30pm

"These highly disciplined dancers sustain a full program that sizzles with energy, inventiveness and versatility... sensuously danced...a passionate tour de force..." — PLAIN DEALER. Another Symphony Hall debut by a nationally recognized dance company.

Crossroads Theatre Company

"New Brunswick's Crossroads Theatre has an extraordinary track record when it comes to producing new plays." — THE NEWS TRIBUNE. Entering its eleventh year, Crossroads has developed an international following for its high quality, engaging repertoire.

Ensemble Theatre Company (ETC)

"Few companies produce theatre as original, courageous, challenging or powerful as the Ensemble Theatre Company." — THE HOME NEWS. ETC blends classical and modern tradition with political appeal into an exuberant theatre experience.

Jomandi

The leading voice of today's Southern theatre, Atlanta's Jomandi has presented works across America and around the world. The company was founded over ten years ago by Thomas W. Jones III and Marsha A. Jackson who starred recently on Broadway in "Checkmates."

Negro Ensemble Company (NEC)

"The most valuable resident theatre in town." — THE NEW YORKER. Recognized as an innovative and exciting theatre company for over twenty years, NEC brings its nationally recognized and Tony and Obie award winning troupe to Symphony Hall.
